

Next Year a Baby Could be in Your Arms

Interested in Adoption? Join Barbara Paris of Jewish Family Service, Inc. and several local families who have recently adopted, for an informational meeting about the various adoption options available to Connecticut residents. The meeting will take place on Wednesday, May 11th at 6:30 P.M. at the Fairfield Woods Library located at 1147 Fairfield Woods Rd, Fairfield, CT. The meeting is free and open to all.

According to Paris, “there are many domestic babies being born every day whose mothers and fathers are seeking to find the perfect adoptive home for them. There are also still some choices to adopt older children overseas”. Local parents will be available to discuss their experiences and show off their beautiful children.

Barbara Paris has personally helped hundreds of Connecticut families fulfill their adoption dreams and will discuss all of the steps that go into a successful adoption including the home study process, preparing a profile book and relating to birth parents. Paris is the Vice President of JFS and the adoption coordinator. With over 25 year's experience, she has been both locally and nationally recognized for her adoption work and was awarded the prestigious "Connecticut Angel in Adoption" in Washington D.C.
